

Osage Valley Banner.

Thursday, September 25, 1879.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—Five more pieces of job work this week.

—Our senior and James are convalescing.

—Mrs. Thos. Thompson of Brumley is at this place.

—The latest styles of the newest goods at Miss Carrie Fendorf's.

—Wm. Padgett and family are off by wagon "for Kansas or bust."

—We hope to be able to publish the full proceedings of the Fair next week.

—Refreshment Tuesday night, but not sufficiently wetting for good plowing.

—Joe Cummings is doing an extensive business; new laprotes received weekly.

—Eq. Sam'l Umstead occupies the position of assistant in M. Loomis's store.

—Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday grinding days of the Anchor Mills.

—The boiler at the Tuscumbla mill struck a leak a few days since, but is now in good repair.

—Notwithstanding the rainbow, the sky still remains in the school house, Prof. Lumpkin has a full school.

—There are three or four cases of ague in town, and little Willie Sone has been quite ill but is improving.

—We have about 9,000 acres of land for sale, of any kind, quality or dimension or price, that could be desired.

—Died—Perry Fowler, the only son of Mrs. James Fowler, on last Sunday morning. He leaves a wife and two children.

—Several persons of this place are attending the California Fair, which commenced Tuesday and will close to-morrow.

—Dr. McGee predicts a large colony of immigrants, to be settled between this place and the Little Gravois, in the course of a few weeks.

—Congregational church of Christ, Iberia, every Sunday 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., W. H. Hicks, pastor. Geo. Johnson, supt. Sunday school.

—The Anchor mills are doing an extensive business; wagons surround the mill by the dozen almost every day, for grinding or lumber.

—The officers of the Miller county Fair association are the most genial and accommodating officers we ever knew, in their positions.

—A great failure in business is sometimes less lamentable than a failure in health. Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills preserve the health. Price 25 cents.

—We learn from the Eclipse that the State Auditor registered, on the 15th inst., the $6,700 Cole county bonds donated to the Mo. Central railroad.

—We still hear of the Jefferson City Railroad boom, but the first spike has not been driven yet and we fear this county will have to look to Seda's for an outlet.

—Phil. Hanesstein was, while in Jefferson City last week, taken severely ill, but recovered so as to be able to return home last Saturday, and we are glad to say, is on foot again.

—Berthe of Brazil, a colt, the property of Mr. Wm. H. Plummer of Cole county, was awarded two premiums at the Miller county Fair, last week, and it is as fine a young animal as can be produced.

—We are in receipt of another letter from H. E. Lawrence; he is still at Donyer, but his ideas are correct that Miller county is a more preferable "paradise" than the far West, and he thinks of returning soon.

—Messrs. John W. Pughman and M. Loomis started to St. Louis last Monday. John will visit his home in Illinois before returning and Mr. Loomis will spend a short time with his family in St. Louis. We wish them a pleasant trip.

—Mr. A. Velasco of Callaway county is in this county, selecting a home for himself and a place to locate a saw and grist mill; to-day he is in the vicinity of St. Elizabeth. He would take in Mr. Pleasant on his trip were it not for the uncertainty of the location of the prospective railroad. Let that railroad be built or bust.

—Dr. Tremain is one among the happy men of Miller county, since Wednesday, the 18th inst., he has been gobbling over the hills of the head waters of Saline; the cause: the arrival of a young queen at his house, weighing 10 pounds. May prosperity ever bless the young lady and parents.

—Married, September 18, 1879, near Iberia by Rev. W. H. Hicks, Mr. Harry P. Mayer and Miss Ella J. Newhart, eldest daughter of Peter Newhart, Esq. We extend to the happy pair our congratulations; may peace and prosperity attend them through life, and the thanks of the Banner for the bountiful supply of delicious bride's cake.

—We copy in this issue a statistical statement of a correspondent to the Missouri Republican. In the main it is correct; much of it, however, has been made up from hearsay; the "characteristics" are true to the letter. "Financially speaking," we cannot say that the money was "squandered for personal purposes." "Politics," are correct if the correspondent had included the Clerk of the county and circuit court; the sound Republicans and Democrats are together in politics and County affairs. A few radical Republicans and Democrats to the contrary notwithstanding.

—Mr. Wm. L. Shelton is one of the blooded stock men of this county. He was in this week, having peligrans printed for his convenience at different fairs he proposes to attend this season.

—Baby shows are the rage everywhere, and we understand that the universal remedy used to keep the little ones quiet is Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. It contains no opiate. Price 25 cents.

—Miss May Gantt contemplates a visit to Illinois. She thinks of starting next Monday week and remain a greater length of time than her many friends of this place would like her stay.

—The iron interest is looking up in this county; E. Ferguson informed us that on last Monday several prominent gentlemen visited the Armstrong and Bond Iron banks, in the southeastern part of this county, for the purpose of opening them out again.

—Miss Carrie Fendorf, Milliner and Dressmaker, Tuscumbla, Missouri.

A well selected stock of Fall and Winter Millinery goods on hand; also, a variety of notions. New supplies added every week if needed. Orders from a distance promptly and satisfactorily filled. SSU

—Several counties in this State are busily engaged, by their immigration societies, preparing descriptions, &c., of the various productions, for the purpose of bringing to their midst wealth and industry. We have been urging the people of this county to organize, and let other parts of the world know what Miller county possesses and can produce.

—Mr. Sam'l Sone and Miss Lucy Cummings attended the Mr. Carmel M. E. church. It was duly dedicated and an excellent sermon preached, at least 500 people present. The building is a fine, large brick, and all indebtedness paid. A splendid dinner was prepared on the ground near the edifice. Mr. Chris. Arnold was one of the liberal contributors toward the erection of the new building.

For the Banner.

A Life Beyond This Life.

There is a life beyond this life
My inmost soul doth testify;
A world beyond this world of strife,
Where souls in tranquil joy may lie.

A peaceful land, a land of bliss,
Where tribulations never go,
A happier home by far than this,
Entirely free from pain and woe.

Where mammon seeks not to be served,
Nor fashion's god to be adored;
Where man from duty never swerve,
And misers' money never hoarded.

Where self-h men are never found,
And aristocracy's unknown;
Where naught but love and joy abound,
For naught but seeds of love are sown.

Where money measures not man's worth,
Nor mere man's righteousness;
Where high of east or low of birth
Are empty words and meaningless.

Where God is worshipped not in form
By hired priests, just once a week;
Where Christians never are lukewarm,
And need be urged for Christ to speak.

Where Christians' crosses are not borne
For all aspire to give God praise;
Where piety is never worn
To cover man's deceitful ways.

When once their prison walls of flesh
Are broken down at God's command,
And I have passed the vale of death,
I shall behold that happy land.

MALLIE HAYNES.

Pleasant M., Mo.

The Miller County Fair.

Opened last Thursday with bright prospects. The stock department was well represented with not only the productions of this county but that of Cole, Callaway, Monticello, Morgan and other counties. The agricultural department was laden with a fine variety and of superior quality, superintended by Mr. H. S. Burlingame. The hall of fine arts &c., superintended by Mrs. J. A. Stevens, a lady fully competent, and of untiring zeal for the position she so worthily occupied, giving unexpected satisfaction regarding all entries and to the many visitors.

On Thursday afternoon a few stock entries were made, with lively competition. On Friday a large programme was gone through with, in the ring and also in other departments. The awarding committee for the fine arts hall was composed of Mrs. J. A. Stevens, supt., Mr. T. J. Hart of High Point, Mrs. Dr. Adcock of Mt. Pleasant and F. G. Fulkerson of the Banner; and by sampling and closely examining the many articles in this department, it can be said they will compete favorably with any we have ever had the good fortune to test. We afterward learned that the premium cake was made by Mrs. J. M. Brockman, it was a very fine cocoa jelly cake, competition was strong. Miss Leona Gordon of Cole was awarded a premium for as fine a piece of work in the way of a wall pocket as could be found anywhere. There was no competition but the committee considered it worthy a premium.

On Saturday afternoon, after the programme entries were all made, a Jockey trotting race was gotten up between Deubenica trotter, of California, and Enloe's fast horse of Cole, said to be for a purse of $50. The former's time the day before was about 3.05, and the latter made the second heat in the same ring in 2.51. Lively pooling was done by many outsiders for the Enloe horse, knowing his speed on the day previous, but to the chagrin of the innocent betters, the Jockey was out in true Jockey colors, as a new rider was placed upon the Enloe horse and on his first full round, a quarter, he jumped the track and made good time up through the crowd of men, women and children, thereby losing time. A cry was at once raised that the Enloe horseman had been bought. There was pretty strong threats by some losers, and also by persons who came near being run over by the horse when off of the ring; but all quieted without any trouble.

To produce a change from the usual sights Mr. Jo. Martin's two little mules—"poor little animals"—were hitched to a buggy and driven in the ring, as two of the bloodiest—less blood—mules on slow race; they were merrily donned with a blue ribbon; they were then driven to the art hall, where, for the noble art of mule, more blue ribbon was presented. For another similar change, on Saturday, Mr. L. C. Icom, of Russellville, drove into the ring one of the finest boned—bones in sight—grays upon the turf time of speed not given, but it was fast, and Mr. Icom's steed will remember even in its boned days that memorable day when the blue ribbon streamed along its hollowed cheek.

We met in attendance during the three days many old friends and pleasant new acquaintances, among them Misses Leona Gordon and Jessie Fisher, of Cole, two accomplished and beautiful young ladies; Messrs. Wm. Sone, John Gordon, Jas. Gordon, Geo. Noland, W. H. Plummer and L. C. Icom, of Cole; Thos. Sone, of Monserat; and Henry Thomas, formerly of this place, distributing circulars for the Tipton district fair; we could not mention even the beginning of the many we met that were doing the enterprise justice. The grounds were well represented in the way of picture taking, by Prof. Beaumont, formerly of this place, eating stands, with lemonade, hot coffee and jelly, wheels of fortune, air guns &c., all in lively operation.

Altogether this was pronounced the best Fair given in this county, and we wish it continued prosperity.
